

Remote River Expeditions

Madagascar: Suggested Reading

Madagascar - A World Out of Time. Lanting, Frans. Jolly, Alison. Durrell, John. Aperture, 1990. Wonderful photographs. A sensitive and informative account of Madagascar.

A World Like Our Own. Jolly, Alison. Yale University Press, 1980. An excellent overview of Madagascar and its diversity and challenges it faces.

The Eight Continent. Tyson, Peter. Harper Collins, 2000. Life, Death and Discovery in the Lost World of Madagascar.

Ark on the Move. Durrell, Gerald. Coward-McCann, 1983. A look at the plight of endangered species of Madagascar and the consequences for life and the future of the planet.

Madagascar-A Natural History, Ken Preston-Mafham, full of photos and enlightening text.

Lemurs of the Lost World, Wilson, Dr. Jane. An informative and entertaining description of and expedition to the crocodile caves of Ankarana Massif..

History of Madagascar. Brown, Mervyn. Excellent coverage of history and culture. This is a recent update of his earlier Madagascar Rediscovered.

Field Guides

Guide to the Birds of Madagascar, Langrand, Oliver. Yale University Press, 1990. Includes all species found in Madagascar.

Guide to Madagascar. Hilary Bradt, Bradt Publications, 2002. By far the best guidebook in English.

Mammals of Madagascar. Garbutt, Nick. Pica Press 1999. An extensive and in-depth look at the unique primates, and other mammals, of Madagascar.

Lemurs of Madagascar. Mittermeier, et alia. Conservation International. 1994. Exhaustive and user-friendly field guide.

Amphibians and Reptiles of Madagascar. Glaw, Frank and Vences, Miguel. Vences, 1994. This second edition includes mammals and freshwater fish.

Lemurs of Madagascar, Glaw, Frank. 1994. This second edition includes mammals and freshwater fish.

